A must see for parents and teenagers

If there ever was a play that absolutely has to be made compulsory for high school kids and their parents, it would have to be this double bill from Fourth Wall Theatre Company: Slut/What is the Matter with Mary Jane.

Fourth Wall Theatre program large image

Written by Patricia Cornelius and Wendy Harmer and Sancia Robinson respectively, two short (about 55 minutes) plays are sweet, not so sweet, confronting, disgusting, upsetting, cruel and so unbelievable that it can not be not true. These plays are a must for boys and girls and their parents and guardians. Whereas 'Slut' is all about cruelty of kids, suffocation of stereotypes and social tags we attach to people we know nothing about, 'What is the Matter with Mary Jane' is all about food disorders, mental illness associated with them and the loneliness of the world of those who suffer through it.

Fourth Wall Theatre - Slut

Presented in a boutique St Martins Theatre in South Yarra, Slut and What is the Matter with Mary Jane are no small matter. The first play will leave you cringing and silently praying not to go through anything like this experience with yourself, your kids or your friends. The second play will leave you gasping and furious, disgusted and hurt.
